Sun City Lincoln Hills Kilaga Springs Lodge, is a two building recreation center. One building being the social building and the other a fitness / spa center. Kilaga Springs is the second of the two BMG Inc. AIA projects in Sun City Lincoln Hills for Del Webb.

The social building is approximately 20,000 sf and includes crafts, multipurpose rooms, theater style presentation hall, demonstration kitchen, cafe, large billiards room and library. All organized around a grand Sierra Mountain styled common area lobby and lounge. The cafe overlooks a BMG designed Zen garden with specimen plantings and a multi level meandering stream with bridges and ramadas.
